John T. Leach, Athlete and Musician, Dies at His Home in Wauregan-Henry T. Lathrope Dead-Lodge Interests-Death of Mrs. Walter Ho-

John T. Leach, 48, of Wauregan, died at his home in that place about 5.30 Friday morning. Mr. Leach had been in failing health for about a yeaf, but his iliness did not become of an acute nature until about two months ago. Two weeks ago Friday he returned from a private hospital at Willimantic, where he had been receiving treatment. Mr. Leach was one of the best known residents of Wauregan, Everyone liked him and appreciated him. Born in Wauregan, the son of George and Ruth Leach, all of his life was spent there. As a youth he was a very successful athlete, and as souvenirs of his prowess in many competitions he held a number of sliver cups. For many years he was in the employ of the Wauregan company and was overseer of a spinning department of the big plant. Leach became known to many outside his home place. He was at different times leader of bands in Wauregan. Moosup and Danielson, and as an orchestra member played at many social affairs in surrounding towns. His friends are numbered by hundreds and a great deal of sorrow has been expressed at his death.

Mr. Leach was a member of the lodge of Old Fellows at Central Village and
